 - (vii) external service providers (including but not limited to mailing houses, telecommunication companies, telemarketing and direct sales agents, call centres, data processing companies and information technology companies) that the Bank engages for marketing services, products and other matters as detailed in paragraph 8 below.
6. Subject to Paragraph 4, the Bank may access the database of any credit reference agency for the purpose of conducting credit reviews from time to time. In particular, the Bank may access the consumer credit data of customer held by any credit reference agency and/or obtain credit reports on customers from such credit reference agency for the purpose of the review of their existing consumer credit facilities which review may involve the consideration by the Bank of any of the following matters:
- (a) an increase in the credit amount;
 - (b) the curtailing of credit (including the cancellation of credit or a decrease in the facility amount); or
 - (c) the putting in place or the implementation of a scheme of arrangement with the customer.

7. With respect to data in connection with mortgages applied by a customer (whether as a borrower, mortgagor or guarantor and whether in the customer's sole name or in joint names with others) on or after 1 April 2011, the following data relating to the customer (including any updated data of any of the following data from time to time) may be provided by the Bank, on its own behalf and/or as agent, to a credit reference agency:
- (a) his/her full name;
 - (b) his/her capacity in respect of each mortgage (as borrower, mortgagor or guarantor, and whether in the customer's sole name or in joint names with others);
 - (c) his/her Hong Kong Identity Card Number or travel document number;
 - (d) his/her date of birth;
 - (e) his/her correspondence address;
 - (f) his/her mortgage account number in respect of each mortgage;
 - (g) the type of facility in respect of each mortgage;
 - (h) his/her mortgage account's status in respect of each mortgage (e.g. active, closed, written-off (other than due to a bankruptcy order), written-off due to a bankruptcy order); and
 - (i) if any, his/her mortgage account's closing date in respect of each mortgage.

The credit reference agency will use the above data supplied by the Bank for the purposes of compiling a count of the number of mortgages from time to time held by the customer with credit providers in Hong Kong, as borrower, mortgagor or guarantor respectively and whether in the customer's sole name or in joint names with others, for sharing in the consumer credit database of the credit reference agency by credit providers, information which the Bank may from time to time access to when it is required to do so (subject to the requirements of the Code of Practice on Consumer Credit Data approved and issued under the Ordinance).

8. USE OF DATA IN DIRECT MARKETING

The Bank intends to use a customer's and/or an individual's data in direct marketing and may not so use the data unless it has received the customer's and/or individual's consent (which includes an indication of no objection) to the intended use. Please note that:

- (a) the name, contact details, products and services portfolio information, transaction pattern and behaviour, financial background and demographic data of a customer and/or an individual held by the Bank from time to time may be used by the Bank in direct marketing;
- (b) the following classes of services, products and/or programmes may be marketed:
 - (i) banking, financial, insurance and related services and products;
 - (ii) reward, loyalty, co-branding and privileges programmes and related services and products;
 - (iii) services, products and/or programmes offered by the Bank's co-branding partners and the Bank's group companies; and
 - (iv) donations and contributions for charitable or non-profit making purposes;
- (c) in addition, the Bank also intends to provide the data described in paragraph 8(a) above to the following classes of entities for use by them in direct marketing of services, products and/or programmes described in paragraph 8(b) above, and the Bank may not so provide the data unless it has received the customer's and/or individual's consent (which includes an indication of no objection) to the intended provision:

- (i) the Bank's group companies and affiliates which provide banking, financial and/or insurance services;
- (ii) third party financial institutions, insurers, credit card companies, securities and investment services providers;
- (iii) third party reward, loyalty, co-branding and privileges programme providers for the relevant services, products and/or programmes;
- (iv) co-branding partners of the Bank and the Bank's group companies for the relevant services, products and/or programmes; and
- (v) charitable or non-profit making organisations.

If a customer and/or an individual does not wish the Bank to use and/or provide to other parties his/her data for use in direct marketing as described above, the customer and/or individual may at any time exercise his/her opt-out right by notifying the Data Protection Officer of the Bank after which the Bank shall cease to use and/or provide to other parties his/her personal data in direct marketing. (To opt out from direct marketing, please complete and return to the Bank an opt-out form available on the Bank's website: www.chbank.com or from any of the Bank's branches.)

9. Under and in accordance with the terms of the Ordinance and the Code of Practice on Consumer Credit Data, a customer and/or an individual has the right:
- (a) to check whether the Bank holds data about him/her;
 - (b) to request access to such data;
 - (c) to require the Bank to correct any data relating to him/her which is inaccurate;
 - (d) to ascertain the Bank's policies and practices in relation to data and be informed of the kind of personal data held by the Bank;
 - (e) to be informed on request which items of data are routinely disclosed to credit reference agencies or debt collection agencies, and be provided with further information to request access to and/or correction of any data disclosed to the relevant credit reference agency or debt collection agency; and
 - (f) in relation to any account data (including, for the avoidance of doubt, any account repayment data) which has been provided by the Bank to a credit reference agency, to instruct the Bank, upon termination of the account by full repayment, to make a request to the credit reference agency to delete such account data from its database, as long as the instruction is given within five years from the account's termination and there has been no default in payment in relation to the account lasting in excess of 60 days within five year period immediately preceding the account's termination. Account repayment data includes amount last due, amount of payment made during the last reporting period (being a period not exceeding 31 days immediately preceding the last time the account data was provided by the Bank to a credit reference agency), remaining available credit or outstanding balance and default data (being amount past due and number of days past due, date of settlement of amount past due, and date of final settlement of amount in default lasting in excess of 60 days (if any)).

10. In the event of any default of payment relating to an account, unless the amount in default is fully repaid or written off (other than due to a bankruptcy order) before the expiry of 60 days from the date such default occurred, the account repayment data (as mentioned in paragraph 9(f) above) may be retained by the credit reference agency until the expiry of five years from the date of final settlement of the amount in default.
11. In the event any amount in an account is written-off due to a bankruptcy order being made against a customer, the account repayment data (as mentioned in paragraph 9(f) above) may be retained by the credit reference agency, regardless of whether the account repayment data reveals any default of payment lasting in excess of 60 days, until the expiry of five years from the date of final settlement of the amount in default or the expiry of five years from the date of discharge of a bankruptcy order as notified by the customer with evidence to the credit reference agency, whichever is earlier.
12. In accordance with the terms of the Ordinance, the Bank has the right to charge a reasonable fee for the processing of any data access request.
13. A customer and/or an individual who requests access to data or correction of data or for information regarding policies and practices and kinds of data held should contact the following officer of the Bank:
